

FROM FRAZZLED BOSS TO INSPIRING LEADER

A group programme for managers focusing on core skills for building effective work relationships.

Jen's instantly likeable and great at what she does. Couldn't recommend her highly enough!

One of the most effective sessions I think I've ever attended, excellent structure, style, focus, good balance between chat, thought and writing

Do your leaders & managers struggle to find the space to think strategically? And yet do you struggle to find the resources to offer bespoke in-house management development solutions?

FROM FRAZZLED BOSS TO INSPIRING LEADER: THE ESSENTIAL TOOLKIT is a 4 month programme giving leaders ringfenced space to think, reflect, and build key skills to support their teams: how to coach, how to build trust within a diverse team, adapting our leadership style when needed, and with additional resources on preparing for difficult conversations, planning team away days and other practical support.

HOW IS IT STRUCTURED?

- 5 online modules (each needing 30-60 minute to complete and comprising short 5 minute videos plus worksheets to prompt reflection)
- 5 x 90 minute lunchtime workshops: an interactive blend of exercises, discussion and skills practice, taking place 1230-2pm on April 28, May 12, June 2, June 23 and July 7 2025.
- Access to support from me throughout and a bonus 30 minute 1-1 coaching call to use whenever it's needed.

The cost of FROM FRAZZLED BOSS TO INSPIRING LEADER: THE ESSENTIAL TOOLKIT is £695 + VAT per participant. Charities and not-for-profit organisations can access a discounted rate of £495+ VAT (please email me at jennifer@mccannacoaching.co.uk if you need the discount code.)

NEED IN HOUSE LEADERSHIP OR MANAGEMENT DEVELOPMENT?

Supporting middle managers with targeted skills training has in many cases fallen off the list over the last few years. If you have 6 or more managers you'd like to both access leadership development and build their relationships as a group of peers, I design and deliver an in house version of this Inspiring Leader programme at an accessible and competitive price.

This might look like a) two in person workshops focusing on skills practice and building relationships between your cohort of managers or b) a series of lunch & learns focusing on different tools and skills needed for effective leadership and team management or c) a series of small group action learning sets – ideal to build and deepen relationships within your management cohort. All to be underpinned with access to the 5 bite-size online modules – designed to fit around a manager's busy schedule.

If you have any questions about FROM FRAZZLED BOSS TO INSPIRING LEADER please email me directly at jennifer@mccannacoaching.co.uk – I would love to hear from you.

WHO AM I?

I'm a leadership coach with the International Coaching Federation at PCC level, and have 15 years experience of coaching leaders & managers in a range of organisations. Recent clients include the Department for Education, British Red Cross, The UN Refugee Agency & Voluntary Services Overseas. I used to manage a big team myself, in a complex organisation, so I bring this insight to designing programmes that I know create confident, skilled up and resilient managers.
